MEMBER PROFILE: LYZETTE WALLACE

Lyzette Wallace (A.B., Political Science, 1990) credits her Stanford experience for not only teaching her how to think out-of-the-box, but also reminding her to dream big and live her dreams. Lyzette is currently a practicing attorney in Washington, D.C. — her firm's offices are on Pennsylvania Avenue NW, literally one block away from the White House — and is undefeated in the courtroom, even though she is no longer a trial attorney. Notwithstanding her current job responsibilities, Lyzette continues to dream big and is in the process of benchmarking for a business venture she intends to launch in the next 6-8 months involving issues of inclusion in the private, public, and government sectors. In addition to being a WDCSA member, Lyzette is also a past President of the Stanford Black Alumni Association, D.C. Chapter (SBAA-DC) where she continues to be quite active.

The leaves are changing, the weather is growing cooler, and the holidays will soon be here.

Join WDCSA in the spirit of the season by helping make it a little brighter for some local families! WDCSA volunteers will return to A Wider Circle (www.awidercircle.org) to help the organization in its mission to help individuals and families lift themselves out of poverty by providing them with basic need items. We'll help receive and sort donations of furniture and other household goods, and help load items for A Wider Circle's beneficiaries to take home.

For more information or to volunteer, contact Christina Russell '96 at carussell17@comcast.net or 202-441-8447.
