Supreme Court Tour

Monday, October 22 11am-2pm
Supreme Court

Visit the Supreme Court, the most powerful and prestigious judicial institution in the world. Attend a lecture in the Courtroom, view an interesting short film of interviews with the current sitting justices, and tour some areas of the building not seen by the general public.

The Tour will begin promptly at 11:00 by the John Marshall statue on the ground floor of the Supreme Court building. More detailed instructions will be provided prior to the tour. Lunch will be on your own at the court's cafeteria. The tour should be complete by 2pm.

Ben Gold, '60, who has served as a docent for over four years, will lead the tour. Space is limited so reserve early. For reservations, contact Jim Finucane at 301-365-3485 or at jim.finucane@yahoo.com.
