Ivy Singles Holiday Party

Thursday, December 6 6:30-9 pm
DACOR Bacon House
1801 F Street NW
Washington, DC

Join the Ivy Singles Social Club for its annual holiday party! The venue is once again the elegant and historic DACOR-Bacon House (built 1824-25), home to several Supreme Court Justices and a Maryland governor. U.S. Congressman from New York, Robert Low Bacon and his wife, Virginia Murray Bacon, lived in the house until 1980. Upon her death, Virginia bequeathed the building and furnishings as a memorial to her husband. The DACOR-Bacon House and Foundation now serve as a "place to facilitate international peace and understanding" as well as a conference and meeting place for the Organization of Foreign Affairs Professionals known as DACOR.

Each floor of the DACOR-Bacon House will be festively decorated for the holiday season. We will feast on hot and cold hors d'oeuvres and enjoy a fine selection of wine, cocktails, and non-alcoholic drinks from a cash bar. Please come dressed in holiday, cocktail, or business attire consistent with our elegant surroundings.

Register in advance online for $42 (includes a $2 processing fee) at this link:
https://ycwd.memberclicks.net/index.php?option=com_mc&view=mc&mcid=form_90275.

Walk-ins are welcome at $45; however, advance reservations are strongly encouraged as space is limited.

The venue is located 4 blocks from the Farragut-West Metro station (Orange and Blue lines). Street parking is available after 6:30 pm. Please be aware that most nearby parking garages close early. Check with the garage attendant.

Wreaths Across America CommunityService*Saturday, December 14 9am - 12 pmArlington National Cemetery
Arlington, VaFAMILY FRIENDLY EVENT

WDCSA, the Stanford Military Service Network (SMSN) and the Capital Alumni Network (CAN) are coordinating a hands-on community service opportunity with the Wreaths Across America organization that honors those who served and sacrificed.

Join fellow Stanford alumni in honoring these brave Americans by laying wreaths at Arlington Cemetery. The wreaths will be provided, but hundreds of volunteers are needed to successfully lay a wreath at every grave. We will meet in front of the Arlington National Cemetery Visitors Center at 9 am and then walk over to the McClellan Arch located on McClellan Drive between Sections 33 and 12 for the Opening Ceremony. The ceremony will include introductory remarks and a short briefing to provide basic information to volunteers. After the ceremony, volunteers will move to the designated areas of the cemetery where they will lay wreaths on the headstones. We want to remind you that when you place the wreath, you may be the first person to visit that particular grave in years, so we hope you will take time to read the stone and honor the memory of that hero.

At 11 am, there will be a wreath laying at President Kennedy's grave followed by an 11:30 wreath laying at the USS Maine Mast Memorial. The final ceremony will take place at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers at noon. For more information go to www.wreathscrossamerica.org
