In March, we sail with Wagner's 'Flying Dutchman' preceded by a back stage tour.

In Richard Wagner's retelling of the nautical legend, formidable bass-baritone Grammy Award winner Eric Owens—one of the most in-demand American opera

All Stanford ticket holders are invited to a "backstage tour" before the opera.

Prime Orchestra tickets are $152; Second Tier Prime tickets are $103. For tickets – send a check payable to WDCSA to Betty Byrne, 1822 Ingleside Terrace NW, Washington, DC 20010.. Contact Betty at 202-483-4048 or bettybyrne@stanfordalumni.org.

Housing Needed for Alternative Spring Break Group

- This upcoming spring break, seniors Nick Ahamed (Political Science) and Eric Mattson (Human Biology) are leading an Alternative Spring Break trip to Washington DC. Their class is titled "Activating Democracy: Campaigns, Elections, and Voting" and hopes to inspire future leaders on campus to become active and engaged members of the democratic process. By exploring topics ranging from the foundations of the United States government to campaign finance and primary politics to voter suppression, this Alternative Spring Break will be a boot-camp immersing students in all the components of an election in the United States. The course culminates in a week-long trip to DC to meet with various national organizations and leaders, as well as to better delve into the topics covered throughout the course. The opportunity to be in the heart of national politics and speak with a truly special line-up of speakers will push students to think critically about the importance of elections and voting as an American citizen, and also equip participants with the tools to further inspire others. Nick and Eric would like to talk with any alumni in the D.C.-area interested in helping host several students during the time of the trip, currently set for March 21-28, 2015. While it would be ideal to host all 14 of the trip's participants in one home, Nick and Eric are eager to chat with alumni who would be happy housing a smaller group of students. If interested, please contact Eric Mattson via email at mattson@stanford.edu, or feel free to give him a call at (402) 560-5594.

EVENT SPOTLIGHT: WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA

On December 13th, WDCSA and the Stanford Military Service Network (SMSN) teamed up to coordinate a family-friendly community service opportunity with the Wreaths Across America organization. The group of 22 alumni, family, and friends honored veterans buried at Arlington National Cemetery by laying wreaths at their grave sites. Participants thoroughly enjoyed both the honor of laying wreaths and the conversations throughout the morning.

Stanford In the News

- The Cardinal topped Maryland 45-21 in the Foster Farms Bowl on December 30th in a cold and blustery Levi's Stadium.
- Researchers at the Stanford University School of Medicine say they have developed a safe and effective skin patch to deliver a drug that enhances the healing of diabetes-related ulcers. The patch, which they tested in mice, may also serve as a way to prevent ulcer formation.
