Ivy Social Club at Jazz on Jackson Place

Thursday, August 9

6:30-8:30pm

Decatur House

748 Jackson Place NW

Washington, DC

Join fellow Ivy alums for an evening at Jazz on Jackson Place sponsored by the White House Historical Association.

Drummer Sanah Kadour was born and raised in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. This Lebanese-Canadian drummer plays a large role in the hot New York jazz scene. An electrifying performer, she appears frequently with the legendary Kirk Lighstey, Philip Harper, Mark Whitfield, and countless other major figures. She appeared recently at the Harlem Stage, Saratoga Jazz Festival, Burlington Jazz Festival, and is regularly heard at Smalls and Fat Cat in New York City. Sanah releases her debut album "Hawk Eyes" this year. This event includes an open bar, light hors d'oeuvres, and a tour of Decatur House.

Register here: <https://encompass.alum.mit.edu/s/1314/2015/club-class-main.aspx?sid=1314&gid=29&pgid=44339&cid=67734>. Admission is $36 (including processing fee), prepaid only, no walk-ins, no payment will be accepted at the door. Event is limited to the first 60 registrants. This event usually sells out, so sign up early.

Washington DC Book Club Discussion
Sunday, September 9 5-7:45 pm
Bethesda, Md

The book group will discuss Ordinary Grace by William Kent Krueger.

Tragedy strikes a family: Accident. Suicide. Murder. The story is told from the perspective of a 13-year old boy as he looks back 40 years later, about how the tragedies affected him and his family. The teenage boy finds himself thrust into an adult world full of secrets, lies, adultery, and betrayal, and is suddenly called upon to demonstrate a maturity and gumption beyond his years.

To join the discussion and participate in the potluck dinner, existing members should RSVP to Ann Cowgill '82 at ann.m.cowgill@gmail.com. New members, please contact Ann for details.

Baltimore Book Club Discussion
Monday, September 17 7:30 pm
Mother's Federal Hill Grille
1113 S. Charles Street
Baltimore, Md

The September selection is Beneath a Scarlet Sky by Mark Sullivan. This book is rated 4.8 out of 5 stars by almost 20,000 Amazon readers. This is a historical fiction based on Pino Lella, who, at the age of 18, spied for the Allies, while serving as the personal driver to Hitler's left hand in Italy.

The November selection is The Lost City of the Monkey God by Douglas Preston.

Questions/RSVP: Helene Myers, Ph.D., P'14, at cedarhouse@comcast.net.

than 7:15, as the boat will sail shortly thereafter with or without ticket holders. Refunds will not be granted to those who arrive late, no shows, or cancelations. If you have any questions, please contact Mike Kass '01 at mkass01@gmail.com.

Stanford In the News

- A lab in the Psychology Department at Stanford has created a set of free toolkits to help people resolve complicated issues, including resources to help people deal with disagreements. The toolkits focusing on four areas – health, education, economic mobility and criminal justice – are available now through SPARQ: Social Psychological Answers to Real-world Questions, a program in the Psychology Department at Stanford's School of Humanities and Sciences.
